The Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA, Sections 314(a)(1) and (a)(4) of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021) was signed into law December 27, 2020. The CRRSAA established additional funding for the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund II (HEERF II), which allocated money to higher education institutions impacted by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic and provided CARES Act grants to students this past year. South Coast College received this funding to provide emergency aid to students. Funds are awarded to students who meet the eligibility requirements (below). Awards are based on the requested amount but are capped by category and in total to assist as many students as possible. High need students will be prioritized. Funds from the HEERF II CRRSAA Emergency Relief Fund are not considered financial aid and do not affect a student's current or future financial aid eligibility. Students who have exceptional need due to hardship as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic are encouraged to apply for funding by completing the Financial Assistance Acceptance Form.

CRRSAA Eligibility

The Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) requires that institutions prioritize students with exceptional need, such as PELL Grant recipients. To be eligible for CRRSAA funds, students must:

1. Be currently enrolled for the Spring 2021 quarter;
2. Have submitted the 20/21 and 21/22 FAFSA;
3. Resolved all required financial aid Verification and C-Code flags.
4. Meet Satisfactory Academic Progress Standards.

Students can request funds in these categories:

1. Tuition & Fees (for the current quarter)
2. Books & Supplies
3. Housing & Food Assistance
4. Transportation
5. Technology Required
6. Child Care
7. Medical Care (including mental health)
8. Personal Expenses related to Academic Program

NEED BASED**

The college has established a process known as Need Based in which students who have experienced exceptional financial hardship can appeal for additional CRRSAA funding. A limited amount of money has been set aside for these appeals. To apply for additional funds, please complete the Additional Financial Assistance Request Form. These funds will be granted on a first-come first-serve basis.
